

A short history

c. 1250–1300	Polynesian voyagers, the ancestors of Māori, settle the islands.
1642	Dutch navigator Abel Tasman sights the coast; after a clash in Golden Bay he leaves without landing.
1769	James Cook lands at Tūranganui-a-Kiwa (Gisborne) and goes on to map both islands.
1840	The Treaty of Waitangi is first signed at Waitangi, Bay of Islands, on 6 February: now Waitangi Day.
1893	The first self-governing country where all women can vote in national elections.
1953	Edmund Hillary and Tenzing Norgay reach the top of Everest.
1987	Te reo Māori becomes an official language.
2011	The Christchurch earthquake of 22 February kills 185 people.

Kiwi English you will hear dairy corner shop

tramping hiking
jandals flip-flops
chilly bin cooler box
ute pickup (utility vehicle)
chur thanks
smoko tea break at work bach holiday house (crib in the far south) togs swimsuit
gumboots rubber boots
sweet as all good, no worries heaps lots

GLUE PIECE 9 HERE · THIS LINE = EDGE OF PIECE 9

NZ-A-00 · piece 8 of 9 · v2 · 2026-10-22